20. All available distributions on account of the claims allowed hereunder shall be made pursuant to the Plan at the earliest possible Periodic Distribution Date after entry of this Stipulation and Order by the Court. Any additional distributions shall be made consistent with the terms of the Plan.

V. Covenants Not to Sue

21. In consideration of the distributions that will be made under the Plan on account of the claims allowed by the terms of this Stipulation and Order, and except as provided in paragraph 22 below, the United States covenants not to bring a civil action or take any administrative action against the Debtors pursuant to sections 106 and 107 of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9606 and 9607, relating to the Sites. This covenant not to sue is conditioned upon Court approval of this Stipulation and Order and complete and satisfactory performance by the Debtors of their obligations under this Stipulation and Order. This covenant not to sue extends only to the Debtors and does not extend to any other person.

22. The covenant not to sue set forth in the previous paragraph does not pertain to any matters other than those expressly specified in the previous paragraph. The United States reserves, and this Stipulation and Order is without prejudice to, all rights against the Debtors with respect to all other matters, and specifically with respect to: (a) any criminal liability; (b) liability for damages for injury to, destruction of or loss of natural resources with respect to any site other than the CDE Site; (c) claims based on a failure by the Debtors to meet a requirement of this Stipulation and Order; (d) liability arising from any alleged ownership or operation of the Sites, or upon the transportation, treatment, storage or disposal, or the arrangement for the transportation, treatment, storage or disposal of hazardous substances at or in connection with the Sites, after the date of signature of this Stipulation and Order by the Debtors; and (e) claims for any site other than the Sites.

23. In consideration of the distributions that will be made under the Plan on account of the Allowed Muskegon Claim, and except as provided in paragraph 24 below, this Stipulation and Order resolves EPA's claim for civil penalties under the CWA against the Debtors at the Muskegon Facility through December 26, 2007.

24. Except as expressly specified in paragraph 23 above, nothing in this Stipulation and Order is intended, or shall be construed, to operate in any way to resolve any other civil liability, or any criminal liability, of the Debtors under the CWA.

25. In consideration of the distributions that will be made under the Plan on account of the Allowed Bellefontaine Claim, and except as provided in paragraph 26 below, this Stipulation and Order resolves EPA's claim for civil penalties under CERCLA against the Debtors at the Bellefontaine Facility through December 26, 2007.

26. Except as expressly specified in paragraph 25 above, nothing in this Stipulation and Order is intended, or shall be construed, to operate in any way to resolve any other civil liability, or any criminal liability, of the Debtors under CERCLA with respect to the Bellefontaine Facility.

27. In consideration of the distributions that will be made under the Plan on account of the Allowed Lakeland Claim and the Allowed Lakeland PRP Claim, the Lakeland PRP Group covenants not to bring a civil action against the Debtors pursuant to CERCLA or any other Federal or state statutory or common law relating to the Lakeland Site. This covenant not to sue is conditioned upon the performance by the Debtors of their obligations under this Stipulation and Order with respect to the Allowed Lakeland Claim and the Allowed Lakeland PRP Claim. This covenant not to sue extends only to the Debtors and does not extend to any other person.

28. The Debtors covenant not to sue and agree not to assert any claims or causes of action against the United States with respect to the Sites, including but not limited to: any direct or indirect claim for reimbursement from the Hazardous Substance Superfund; any claims against the United States, its departments, agencies or instrumentalities; and any claims arising out of response actions at or in connection with the Sites. Nothing in this Stipulation and Order shall be construed to constitute preauthorization of a claim within the meaning of section 111 of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9611, or 40 C.F.R. § 300.700(d). The covenant not to sue in this paragraph shall not apply in the event that the United States brings a cause of action or issues an order pursuant to the reservations set forth in paragraph 22(b), (d) or (e) of this Stipulation and Order, but only to the extent that the Debtors' claims arise from the same response action, response costs or damages that the United States is seeking pursuant to the applicable reservation.

VI. Contribution Protection

29. With regard to claims for contribution against the Debtors for "matters addressed" in this Stipulation and Order, the Debtors are entitled to such protection from contribution actions or claims as is provided by section 113(f)(2) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9613(f)(2). The “matters addressed” in this Stipulation and Order are all natural resource damages with respect to the CDE Site, and all response actions taken or to be taken, and response costs incurred or to be incurred, at or in connection with the Sites by the United States or any other person, except the States of Connecticut, Indiana, Nebraska, New Jersey and Ohio. The “matters addressed” in this Stipulation and Order do not include those response costs or response actions as to which the United States has reserved its rights under this Stipulation and Order in the event the United States asserts rights against Debtors coming within the scope of such reservations.

VII. Authority

30. The Debtors’ entry into this Stipulation and Order is permitted under the Plan and the Confirmation Order, subject to the consent of the Claims Monitor as reflected by the signature of its authorized representative set forth below.

31. The signatories for the parties each certify that he or she is authorized to enter into the terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Order and to execute and bind legally such party to this document.

32. Nothing in this Stipulation and Order shall be construed to create any rights in, or grant any cause of action to, any person not a party to this Stipulation and Order.

VIII. Lodging Order; Public Comment; Right to Withdraw; Motion for Approval and Entry of this Stipulation and Order

33. Prior to entry of this Stipulation and Order by the Court, this Stipulation and Order shall be lodged with the Court for a period of not less than thirty (30) days for public notice and comment. The United States reserves the right to withdraw or withhold its consent from this Stipulation and Order if the public comments regarding this Stipulation and Order disclose facts or considerations that indicate that this Stipulation and Order is inappropriate, improper or inadequate. Following the close of the public comment period, if the United States does not withdraw or withhold its consent, the United States will file a motion for approval and entry of this Stipulation and Order by the Court, which will include any public comments received, as well as the United States' responses to such comments. The Debtors consent to entry of this Stipulation and Order without further notice.

34. If this Stipulation and Order is not authorized and approved by the Court, or if the United States exercises its right to withdraw or withhold its consent under paragraph 33 above, this Stipulation and Order shall be of no force and effect, whereupon nothing herein shall be deemed an admission of any fact or waiver of any right of any party with respect to the matters contained herein.

IX. Miscellaneous

35. This Stipulation and Order represents the complete agreement between the Debtors and the United States with regard to the EPA Claim and the Commerce/Interior Claim, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, promises and representations made by the Debtors and the United States concerning such claims. This Stipulation and Order represents the complete agreement between the Debtors and the Lakeland PRP Group with regard to the Lakeland PRP Group Claim, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, promises and representations made by the Debtors and the Lakeland PRP Group concerning the Lakeland PRP Group Claim. This Stipulation and Order may not be amended, modified or supplemented, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the parties hereto who are affected by such amendment, modification or supplement and the entry of an approval order by the Court.

36. Nothing herein shall modify, limit or impair the scope, nature or effect of the discharge of claims and related injunctions under section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, the terms of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, nor shall anything herein otherwise be deemed to modify any provision of the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

37. Upon the entry of this Stipulation and Order, the Claim Objection and the Government Response shall be deemed resolved and withdrawn with prejudice.

38. For the avoidance of doubt and without modifying any of the terms hereof, the Proofs of Claim and the Lakeland PRP Group Claim shall be treated consistent with the terms of this Stipulation and Order and shall be listed on the claims docket as follows:

The United States and the Lakeland PRP Group agree not to amend any of the foregoing proofs of claim or file any additional proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases with respect to the liabilities resolved by this Stipulation and Order, and the Debtors agree not to file any additional objections with respect to the liabilities resolved by this Stipulation and Order. Any proofs of claim or objections filed in violation of the preceding sentence shall be void and of no effect.

39. This Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Stipulation and Order.

40. The Debtors, the Debtors' claims agent, The BMC Group, Inc., and the Clerk of this Court and the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court are authorized to take such actions as are necessary and appropriate to give effect to this Stipulation and Order.
